Part X, Line 2:

ABOH's activities are generally exempt from federal and state income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Since ABOH is exempt from federal and state income tax liability, no provision is made for current or deferred income tax expense. ABOH is not a private foundation. Management has determined that ABOH is not subject to unrelated business income tax. Management is not aware of any transactions that would impact ABOH's tax-exempt status.

ABOH follows the guidance of the Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) 740, Accounting for Income Taxes, related to uncertainties in income taxes, which prescribes a threshold of more likely than not for recognition and derecognition of positions taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. For the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024, management of ABOH is not aware of any material uncertain tax positions.

All tax-exempt entities are subject to review and audit by federal, state, and other applicable agencies. Such agencies may review the taxability of unrelated business income, or the qualification of the tax-exempt entity under the Internal Revenue Code and applicable state statutes. For federal tax purposes, the tax returns remain open for possible examination for a period of three years after the respective filing deadlines of those returns.
